SuperShuttle International Inc. begins service at Pittsburgh International Airport
May 1, 2009
Customers can begin to book reservations as early as Tuesday, April 21st

PHOENIX (April 21, 2009) SuperShuttle International, Inc., the largest shared ride ground transportation company in the U.S., announced today it will begin taking reservations for its service in Allegheny County on April 21 for shared ride to and from the Pittsburgh International Airport with service beginning May 1, 2009. Reservations can be made online at supershuttle.com or by calling 1-800-BLUE VAN.

SuperShuttle acquired its service through an acquisition of YC Holdings, Inc. of Pittsburgh becoming the 33rd airport in the country to offer SuperShuttle. On May 1, 2009 SuperShuttle will operate over 20 vans servicing the Pittsburgh International Airport to and from Home, Office, and Hotel locations in Allegheny County. SuperShuttle hopes to broaden its service area in the coming months upon PUC approval to include a wider operation of service outside of Allegheny County.

New SuperShuttle customers in the Pittsburgh area will be interested to know that they can earn frequent flyer miles on select airlines when they book SuperShuttle rides online at www.supershuttle.com. Airline partners include US Airways, Delta Air Lines, Northwest Airlines, United Airlines and Frontier Airlines.

SuperShuttle Pittsburgh currently has driver franchise opportunities. For more information, please contact 412-444-4444.
